WE ARE HIRING!

- DEVELOPMENTAL & BEHAVIORAL PEDIATRICIAN
- BEHAVIORAL PEDIATRIC OR PSYCHIATRIC NURSE PRACTITIONER

Make an exciting career move and become a part of our thriving, interdisciplinary private practice dedicated to developmental and behavioral pediatrics. Center for Developing Minds is a fee-for-service clinic located in California's Silicon Valley.

Our clinicians provide longitudinal care for their own client base, while having the ability to collaborate with other in-house professionals. Established in 2004, our clinic philosophy and practice is to highlight a child's strengths and weaknesses, offering indicators for success in a personalized treatment plan.

Full or part-time opportunities available. Hours are flexible. Administrative support is provided. Generous compensation plus benefits, based upon credentials and experience. DBP starting salary at $350k/year, NP starting at $175k/year.
